HOW TO PLAY

Say them words good until you get the secret message.

HOW TO PLAY

Solve each blank square by discovering the shared compound word they have in common

Handwriting practice lines consisting of solid top and bottom lines with a dashed midline.

If "The Jetsons" were reimaged in the present day, what futuristic technology would audiences be dazzled by?

HOW TO PLAY

Discover the hidden image above by filling in all remaining black squares in each row or column using the number(s) on their border. Each digit represents the length of a run of black square(s) and there must be one white space between each run of squares. Use them critical thinking skills and the pre-filled squares to solve the 15 x 15 grid above.

JUNK MAIL SNIPPING

Sift through your collection of junk mail, magazines, brochures, and scrap paper. Look for vibrant images, intriguing patterns, and any phrases or words that resonate with you.

Once you've selected your pieces, snip them out with scissors.

Before gluing, arrange the cutouts on your journal page, playing around with design by overlapping or layering them. Once satisfied, glue each piece in place, smoothing out to prevent bubbles or wrinkles.

For some added flair, consider adding some fancies like stickers, doodles, or washi tape. Allow your collage to dry for about an hour, and once set, take a moment to reflect on your creation.

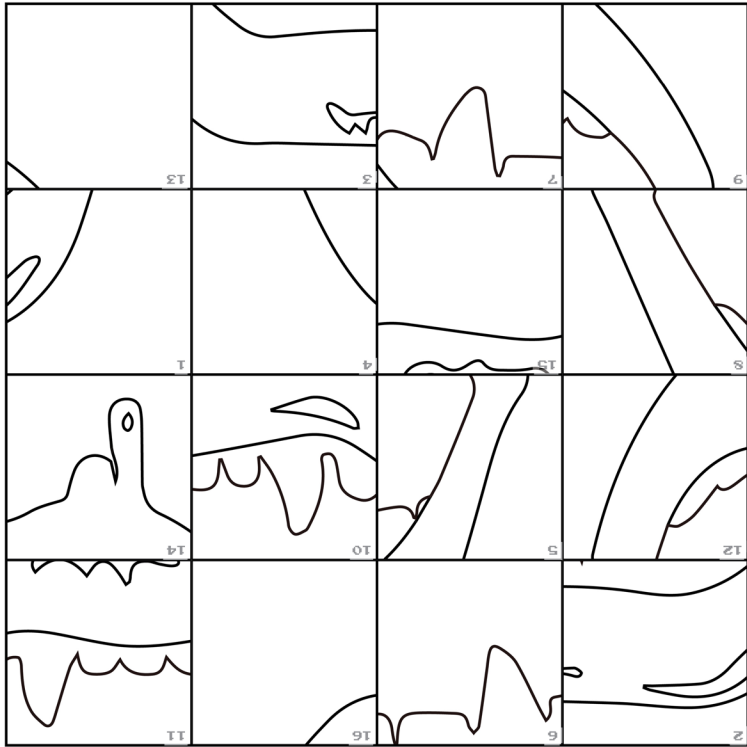

Hate how MUCH junk mail you get?
Try Googling these:
