HOW TO PLAY

Solve each blank square by discovering the shared compound word they have in common

JUNK MAIL SHITTING

Sift through your collection of junk mail, magazines, brochures, and scrap paper. Look for vibrant images, intriguing patterns, and any phrases or words that resonate with you.

Once you've selected your pieces, snip them out with scissors.

Before gluing, arrange the cutouts on your journal page, playing around with design by overlapping or layering them. Once satisfied, glue each piece in place, smoothing out to prevent bubbles or wrinkles.

For some added flair, consider adding some fancies like stickers, doodles, or washi tape. Allow your collage to dry for about an hour, and once set, take a moment to reflect on your creation.
